MAY CARNIVAL IS GREAT ATTRACTION

HUNDREDS GATHER IN THIS CITY TO WITNESS ANNUAL CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL.

Gaily Decorated Autos and Vehicles, Parade, Exercises and Children's Games Make Eventful Day.

A typical May day, faultless in its beauty and as perfect as if made to order, greeted the throng of visitors in Redwood City Saturday to witness the annual floral carnival. Many of the business houses were decorated in the colors of the Woman's Club and many flags were flung to the breeze in honor of the gala occasion.

The day's enjoyment began with a picnic luncheon in Redwood Highlands and this was followed at 2 o'clock by the floral parade, which was the main feature of the celebration. The first section of the parade was given to the children. Preceding the queen and led by the grammar school drum corps, about 100 little people marched with their gaily decorated doll buggies, hand-cars and bicycles. The Redwood City band followed, and then a float decorated in pink and white geraniums and roses, bearing the queen, little Evalyn Eva, and her court. Seated about her were her maids, Angele Shaw, Adrienne Yount, Frances Gunther and Grace Baird, while the pages, Ernest and Floyd Baird, Kendall Towne, Meredith Eva and Donald Schwerin, marched beside them.

The second section was composed of automobiles and carriages, many being beautifully decorated. The machine of Mrs. Harvey D. Loveland carried off the silver cup for the best decoration. This large car was covered with purple wistaria and carried a bevy of little girls whose costumes were in perfect accord with the color scheme.

The cup given for originality was won by Mrs. Wubben, whose machine was enclosed in netting and represented a farmyard scene, with poultry and all complete. The Dr. J. L. Ross automobile, decorated in white roses with the flag design and with the physician's little daughter as Betty Ross making the first flag, received much attention along the line of march as did the Nolan machine, which represented a battleship.

The second prize was given to Mrs. George Elliott whose car represented the national colors, made of carnations. The second original prize was given to Forest Moody for his decorated juvenile machine. Other handsomely decorated cars were those of the University Garage of Palo Alto. L. P. Behrens, Joseph H. Nash, G. C. Elan, Dr. Yount, A. D. Walsh, Frank K. Towne.

The decorated horse vehicles in the parade which received prizes were as follows: Four-horse team of Woods & Bell, in which the Rebekahs rode, two-horse team of the Redwood City Undertaking Company and the one-horse buggy of Mrs. Alex Ryan. A prize was awarded to the lodge of Rebekahs for its large attendance. Over thirty prizes were given to the children for their decorations.

After the march through the principal streets the parade countermarched to the clubhouse grounds, where the ceremony of crowning the queen was observed. This was followed by a May pole dance by eighteen young girls and a program of music and dancing. The exercises consisted of a song by Elizabeth Gillespie; fancy dance, Florence Buttgenbach of San Francisco; recitation, Margarite Sprenger; vocal duet, Alma and Gertrude Read; song, Lydia Sprenger; chorus, six little girls; musical skit, May O'Keefe of San Francisco; races under the direction of John Layng, for which many prizes were given, completing the pleasure of the afternoon. From 6 to 8 p. m. dinner was served at the clubhouse. Dancing at the clubhouse from 8 until midnight concluded the program of the day.

The following ladies were in charge of the carnival and are entitled to credit for its success:

Mrs. Merrill, president Woman's club.
Mrs. Finkler, chairman of the carnival committee.
Mrs. Baird, floral parade.
Mrs. Eva, exercises.
Mrs. Cummings, supper.
Mrs. Winter, icecream.
Mrs. Wentworth, lemonade.
Mrs. Albert candy.
Mrs. Christ, punch bowl.
Mrs. Shaw, reception.
Mrs. Mansfield, publicity.
Mrs. Clar, grab-bag.
Mrs. Gerwin, cornucopias.
Miss Thrush, queen's throne.
Mrs. Lorenz decorations.
Mrs. Baker, dance.
Mrs. Nichols, fortune telling.

SHEERIN WILL ESTABLISH NEW LOCAL LAUNDRY.

D. C. Sheerin, a resident of this city, and well known in the laundry business, has opened negotiations with John J. Read, the real estate dealer, with a view to securing a first-class laundry in Redwood City. The present office of the new laundry is at 306 Broadway, adjoining the office of Wells-Fargo express. Mr. Sheerin will supervise work of securing patronage for the new enterprise and will give personal attention to its handling, which may be guaranteed as first class, he having had fifteen years experience in that line. The new laundry has the most modern equipment of any on the Pacific Coast and will handle all kinds of work without damage or fading. Gentlemen's collars and shirts will be washed and ironed without cracking which in itself is a great improvement in the average laundry work.

FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

John W. Skillen of Sidney, Ohio, Has Found a Remedy.

Experts declare that the reason stomach disorders are so common in this country is due to hasty and careless habits of eating. Stomach troubles and run-down conditions usually go together.

John W. Skillen of Sidney, Ohio, says: "I had a bad stomach trouble for years, and became so weak that I could hardly walk or do any work. My appetite was poor, and it seemed impossible to get any relief. Since taking 'Vinol' I find a remarkable improvement in my health, my digestion is much stronger, and I have gained in weight. I would not be without Vinol."

Vinol makes weak stomachs strong because it strengthens and tones up the weakened, tired and overtaxed nerves of the digestive organs. Vinol is easily assimilated by the weakest stomachs, and is delicious to the taste.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

P. S.—Stop scratching, our Saxo Salve stops itching. We guarantee it.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

ADDING TO SHORTRIDGE'S STRENGTH

The withdrawal of Senator Boynton from the campaign for the Republican nomination for United States Senator has largely resulted in adding his strength to the Shortridge forces. Boynton's greatest strength lay chiefly in the northern counties, where he is well known, and where his very creditable record in public service has attached the Republican voters to him. Personal reasons having necessitated his withdrawal, his adherents are hastening to enlist under the Shortridge banner. This was made evident by the stand taken by the Woodland Mail, which, having previously endorsed Boynton, has now given its support to Shortridge.

"Some weeks ago," says the Mail, "at the time Senator Boynton announced himself as a candidate for the office of United States Senator, the Mail endorsed him for the office and pledged its best support during the campaign. At that time we gave our reasons for supporting the man who had given eight years faithful service to the district in which Yolo county is included. Later, Mr. Boynton withdrew from the contest for personal reasons which were good and sufficient.

"That action has not deprived the Mail of a candidate for United States Senator. The Republican party has many men fitted to honor the office and the people of California, than whom, in our estimation, none stands higher than Samuel M. Shortridge of San Francisco. The Mail commends Mr. Shortridge to the voters in the Republican party and feels that it can give good reasons why he is entitled to hearty support at the polls.

"The editor of the Mail has had 30 years' pleasant personal acquaintance with Shortridge, dating back to a time when we were both getting ready to cast our first votes over in Napa county, where Shortridge was teaching ing school and the writer was driving nails and pushing a jackplane.

"During those days Shortridge was an eloquent adherent of the Republican party, and in every campaign since, whether things looked rosy or dark, he has continued to preach Republicanism from almost every platform in the state. His has been a service of love for the grand old party, and in all these years he has never yet gone into a campaign for the money there was in it, because for him there was no money, as he has consistently refused remuneration.

"For all these years he has at no time held an office, but has been content to work as a private citizen. Now that he aspires to the office of United States Senator, the voters of the party should flock to his support, glad of an opportunity to reward long and faithful service.

"That, however, should not be the controlling reason for supporting Mr. Shortridge. Qualification for an office should be the first consideration, personal friendship and party service being only of secondary importance. Measured by the standard of qualification, Shortridge stands pre-eminent. His long legal career, his proven ability as an orator, his ready grasp of governmental problems, all fit him to the office to which he aspires.

"The women voters of California particuly owe him support. For all his adult life-time he has been a consistent contender for equal suffrage. When the question of suffrage was most unpopular in this state, he was ever ready to enter the lists as a champion, as the sentiment began to change he was there to fan the flame of popular opinion, and when it was an accomplished fact, he was one of those who rejoiced in the success of the long years of arduous work of the friends of equal rights.

"In the past, it is probably true that Shortridge was not quite so near the throne of officialdom as many others of lesser qualifications or lesser right, because of his independence and utter refusal to place politics above party purity and equity, but now that the "old order changeth" and the people themselves are really taking the lines of authority into their own hands, he should be sought out as a leader, always remembering that he has spent a lifetime in fighting for the best and highest ideals of the party to which he has given his allegiance.

"For these, and many other good reasons which the Mail may touch upon later, we heartily endorse the candidacy of Mr. Shortridge for United States Senator."

Death of Miss VanCourt

Miss Helen Van Court, the sister of James E. Van Court, passed away at Santa Clara Sunday. The deceased had long been an invalid. She was a native of New York and aged 66 years. The funeral took place from the Crowe undertaking parlors Tuesday. Rev David Crabtree conducted the service, and the burial was in Union cemetery. Besides her brother, the deceased is survived by one sister, Mrs. Virginia Arne of Berkeley.

San Mateo County Center.

The San Mateo County Center met at Burlingame Tuesday and took steps toward the establishment of a county detention home. Mrs. Miller, the president of the center, will address the supervisors on the subject at a future meeting. The next session of the center will be at the Woman's clubhouse on the afternoon of June 9th.

Two Day Tennis Tourney.

Redwood City tennis enthusiasts are interested in the coming county tournament to be held on the two asphalt courts of the San Mateo highschool on Saturday and Sunday, May 30 and 31. May 30 is a legal holiday, giving the players two days in which to play the tourney. It has been decided to let players select their own partners and after the entries are made the handicap committee will get to work and arrange the handicaps. For instance, two beginners would receive a sufficient handicap from two older players to make them about evenly matched. The entrance fee will be $1 a player or $2 a team. Redwood City, Woodside, Menlo Park and San Carlos players will forward their entries to Roy H. Curran, Redwood City. Entries will close next Wednesday evening, May 20th. Entries must be accompanied by admission fee. Handsome prizes will be awarded for first and second places.

Modern Cars for S. P.

The Southern Pacific Company has just received twenty new cars, the first consignment of 100 new steel coaches which have been built especially for the Panama-Pacific Exposition travel. The cars are absolutely the last word in coach construction; nothing finer having ever been built. They have a seating capacity for 72 people and weigh one hundred and ten thousand pounds. They are provided with a double row of ventilators and individual windows for each seat. The windows are fitted with a device by which the window may be raised to any point from one to thirty-six inches and will remain at any point so placed. These cars are lighted by six deck chandeliers of forty candle power each. The upholstery is the same as that which is used in Pullman cars.

Six of these cars have been assigned to the commuter service between San Francisco and San Jose, in trains Nos. 43 and 48, known as the Peninsula Flyer. No 43 arrives at San Francisco at 8:40 a. m. and No. 48 leaves there at 5:20 p. m.

Students Score Success.

The high school production, Fanchon, the Cricket, which was given at the Alhambra Friday last was a huge success. Though performed by amateurs it gave eall evidence of being produced by professionals. Not much attentiona however was given to scenic effect, which was greatly overshadowed by the splendid acting. Miss Thelma Knox, in the leading role of Fanchon, showed her capability for so large a part. Others who distinguished themselves were Thomas Pennington and Stanton Mullen as twin brothers, and Miss Marie McAuliffe as the witch.

Renewing Old Acquaintance.

A. F. Cornell, a station agent here forty-five years ago, was in town yesterday calling on his old friend, P. P. Chamberlain. Mr. Cornell had been attending the Odd Fellows' convention at Santa Cruz and stopped off on his way to San Francisco. When agent at Redwood City he married Ruby Jewell, a reigning belle of those days. Mr. Chamberlain was the only one in town left of the days of long ago to greet him. Mr. Cornell has been tax collector of San Diego county for the past twenty years.

Of the Salaried Man Should Be—

TO SAVE

It is possible that luck may play an important part in the quick making of fortunes, but it has nothing to do with fortunes accumulated from the savings of labor.

A bank account, however, will be of assistance and the young man or woman who will take this method of saving from his or he salary will eventually reach the desired goal.

This bank welcomes the accounts of those people who are working on salary and have a desire to save a part of it, We pay 4%, compounded every six months.

She has been very popular with her pupils, and faculty of the school. Much regret is expressed by her contemplated departure from Redwood City where she is held in high esteem.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY MADE IS SOCIETY EVENT

An especially notable event among the younger social set of this city was the reception given last Saturday afternoon by Miss Luella Behrens, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Behrens, in honor of the twentieth anniversary of her birth. In the tastefully adorned parlors of the home, the charming young nostess delightfully entertained twenty-five sister members of her Stanford Sorority, the pleasures of the occasion continuing through the early hours of the evening, the time passing most entertainingly with instrumental music, songs and games. In lieu of the usual light refreshments, Miss Behrens regaled her guests with a splendidly appointed cousre dinner, served at handsomely decorated tables. In Quest of Truth.

The cantata, "In Quest of Truth" will be presented by the grammar school at the Alhambra Friday evening, May 22. Reservations begin at Ryan's drug store next Monday. The advance sales already assure a full house.

The scene opens at a medieval castle where a knight and fair lady are talking. The knight is bent on joining a band of pilgrims who are going in search of Truth. The lady after trying in vain to disuade him from his purpose, begs him to "walk with blinded eyes, until the prize is won," with the assurance that trust must prevail in his search for Truth.

The Pilgrims approach, and the knight after being blindfolded by the lady, is led by her to join them.

In the second scene, Queen Proserpine is seated upon her throne, surrounded by the Fates, singing.

The Pilgrims enter singing. Queen Proserpine greets the Pilgrims, and asks them to state their purpose in coming. She grants them permission to seek among the fates for Truth. They find only Life, Death and Change, when the Queen informs them that Truth is "waiting past the grave." and promises to lead them to this land.

The third scene is in fairy land. The veiled love stands surrounded by fairies, who dance about her with wreathes of flowers, enclosing her in a charmed circle. The Fates and Pilgrims enter singing.

At Presorpine's command, the Pilgrims come forward one by one and assert their claim on Truth.

Finally Faith, who is led, blindfolded by Doubt, is declared successful and awarded the prize. At the close of the scene the fairies scatter, leaving faith confronting Truth. Upon removing the scarf from his eyes, he recognizes and claims Truth as his lady.

Fine Dance Prizes.

Have you seen them? Everybody else has. They stopped traffic on Broadway, and no wonder. On May 23d a large crowd will stop to witness the grand prize waltz at the Young Bachelors' ball at which they will be presented to the gentleman and his lady partner winning in this much-watched for event. At present they are being closely guarded in the window of Knox's Toggery where they are causing much interest. Next Saturday night, the 23d, Redwood City will be visited by many outsiders, including parties as far north as South San Francsico and as far south as Mountain View, who have expressed a desire to either attend or enter the contest. There are many fine, graceful dancers in Redwood City and for this reason we do not think that our guests from neighboring towns will carry home the trophies. A second and third prize, to be selected, will also be presented. The fact that a prize waltz contest is to be held is creating a great deal of interest, Redwood City, to the recollection of this generation never having held such a contest, and many spectators will also be present. There being no public social event in this locality on the night of this grand ball, assures a monster crowd, and the Young Bachelors assure all a fine time.

CONGRESS SEES IMPORTANCE OF REDWOOD WATERWAY.

In Congress interest is being awakened in the rivers and harbors of California, and during the present session over a million dollars has been appropriated for their development. The following report to the Rivers and Harbors Committee concerning Redwood Creek will be of interest to local people:

"Before improvement there were shoals in this creek that were bare at low tide. The channel had a width varying from 80 to 400 feet and was used only during the medium and higher stages of the tide. The total amount spent prior to the adoption of the present project was $31,442.66. This was for dredging a channel about 6,000 feet long, 50 to 60 feet wide, and 2 to 3 feet deep. In 1902 this project was modified to provide for a channel depth of 5 feet and certain works to confine the current.

"The present project, approved June 25, 1910, provides for a channel 150 feet wide and 5 feet deep at mean low water up to the city dock, about three-fourths of a mile below Redwood City. The estimate cost is $12,000, with $1,500 annually thereafter for maintenance.

"It is recommended that a preliminary examination of the locality be authorized, with a view to determining upon the advisability of reducing the project width of the improved channel and extending it to the head of navigation. The project requires a much wider channel than is necessary and does not provide for reaching the head of navigation. No work was done during the year and no expenditures made.

"The total amount spent on the existing project to date is $10,320.80. The present project was entirely completed early in 1911, and the result was a channel 150 feet wide and 5 feet deep from San Francisco Bay up to the city dock.

"No estimate is made for expenditures for the fiscal year 1915, because the funds on hand, $4,679.20, will be sufficient for all necessary work."

Sequoia Students Play Good Tennis

The members of the tennis team of the highschool who were entered in the sub-league tournament at San Jose Saturday made a very creditable showing. In the boys' singles Gordon Seely lost to Sweigert of San Jose by a close score, after a hard fought match, whil in the doubles Clement Shields and Kenneth Rice lost to Teall and Hu ter of San Mateo by a close score also. However, in the girls' singles Josie Read won the championship, while in the doubles, Emily Gilespie and Hazel Lamb also won the championship. As the result of this double victory Sequoia stands tied with San Jose for the beautiful Spaulding trophy, San Jose having won the boys' singles and doubles. The possessor of the trophy will be decided next Saturday when mixed doubles will be played. Sequoia's team will be Josie Read and Gordon Seely.

Friends of Mrs. Emil Dreyfus of this city were distressed yesterday to learn that she has been removed to a San Francisco hospital for treatment and that an operation may be necessary.

WOMAN JURY TO PASS ON MRS. MOTZ' COMPETENCY.

The hearing of Mrs. Kate Motz' petition to be restored to competency will be before a jury of women. Mrs. Motz is a wealthy Burlingame widow who was adjudged incompetent last year. The case is set for today.

Property valued at $50,000 is involved and an interesting legal battle is expected. Mrs. Motz has retained Sullivan & Sullivan and Theodore J. Roche to represent her. Ross & Ross and John F. Davis will appear for Porter E. Lamb, guardian and administrator of the estate.

Among the women who have been subpoenaed for jury service are Mrs. Kate Gittings, San Mateo; Mrs. Elizabeth Bean, Burlingame; Mrs. Laura G. Huyck, San Mateo; Mrs. Honora L. O'Connor, San Mateo; Mrs. Ethel C Button, Redwood City; Mrs. Harriett C. Haydock, San Carlos, and Mrs. Evelyn J. Trist, Burlingame.

"IN QUEST OF TRUTH," GRAMMAR-SCHOOL CANTATA.

"In Quest of Truth," the cantata to be presented by the grammar school will be given at the Alhambra Friday evening, the 22d instant. It will be interesting to see the boy and girls dressed in the costumes of the Middle Ages. Mr. Carrington is drilling the choruses daily and the domestic art department is rapidly making the costumes. It was the intention to have this entertainment in the grammar school or Horace Hawes gymnasium, but the work of renovating the building will not be completed in time.

It was Not an Imaginary Snake.

Joe Nash had a long, lean and hungry visitor at his place in Wellesley Park the other night. The visitor sneaked into the rabbit pen and selecting a fat and juicy occupant, swallowed it without even the preliminary of mastication. After his choice meal Mr. Snake—it was one of the gopher variety—found himself so enlarged of stomach that like the fox in the rhyme, "He could not get out or turn about, and so he was killed by beating"—when Joe discovered him in the morning.

SAN BRUNO FLUME CASE IS PRACTICALLY DECIDED.

That the County of San Mateo will win its suit to compel the Spring Valley Water Company to remove a flume from the highway near San Bruno was intimated from the superior bench yesterday by Judge B. V Sargent of Monterey county, sitting for Judge Buck.

Judge Sargent gave the attorneys for the water company fifteen days to file their brief, but hinted that he wou'd decide in favor of the county. District Attorney Swart was not asked to submit a brief for the people.
